CIVIL ACTION NO. 1:21-CV-474

MAJOR LUCAS, ET AL.

§

MEMORANDUM OPINION REGARDING TRANSFER

Plaintiff Curtis Lee Sheppard, an inmate confined at the Michael Unit of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice, Correctional Institutions Division, proceeding pro se, brings this civil rights action pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 against Major Lucas, Captain Light, Warden Collins, Warden Babcock, and Warden Meador, all employed at the Michael Unit.

The above-styled action was referred to the undersigned United States Magistrate Judge pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 636 and the Local Rules for the Assignment of Duties to the United States Magistrate Judge.

Discussion

Plaintiff brings this lawsuit concerning an incident which occurred at the Michael Unit on October 16, 2020.

The Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. §1981, et seq., under which this case is brought, does not contain a specific venue provision. Accordingly, venue in civil rights cases is controlled by 28 U.S.C. § 1391. When, as in this case, jurisdiction is not founded solely on diversity of citizenship, 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b) provides that venue is proper only in the judicial district where the defendants reside or in which the claims arose.

The claims which form the basis of Plaintiff's complaint occurred at the Michael Unit. The Michael Unit is located in Anderson County, Texas. In addition, the defendants in this action are all employed at the Michael Unit. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 124, Anderson County is located in the Tyler Division of the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas. As a result, venue is proper in the Eastern District of Texas.

While Anderson County is within the jurisdictional boundaries of the Eastern District of Texas, it is located in the Tyler Division of the district, rather than the Beaumont Division. When a case is filed in the wrong district or division, the court "shall dismiss, or if it be in the interest of justice, transfer such case to any district or division in which it could have been brought." 28 U.S.C. § 1406(a). Accordingly, this case should be transferred to the Tyler Division of this court. An appropriate order so providing will be entered by the undersigned.

SIGNED this the 28th day of September, 2021.
